Terms, Conditions and Policies for the Resume Rewrite service

What you get

Your finished resume as a PDF, delivered to your email: a clear summary, strong experience lines, and a skills list — in order, ready to use.

Built only from your facts — your jobs, your dates, your skills. Nothing invented.

Flat — $60: written for the kind of job you name.

Plus — $96: aimed at one job post you give us — its link or its pasted text — no pictures.

Premium — $132: Paste the words into the form: your resume (copied from your text file — PDF or DOC, no pictures) adapted to that post, with your diplomas (up to 3) and your licenses (up to 3) entered exactly as your papers show.

Your chosen style: 1 style (Flat), 2 styles (Plus), all 3 styles (Premium).

Length: Flat is one page, fixed. Plus runs up to two pages and Premium up to three pages — with Plus and Premium, you choose the length setting: Ultra condensed, Medium extended, or Full extended.

One round of changes included, and up to 3 days to review each draft.

The three styles

Your resume is delivered as a PDF in numbered styles. Write the style number(s) you want on the intake form.

Style 1 — Reverse-Chronological: "Your jobs, newest first." The most popular style.

Style 2 — Combination: "Your skills first, then your jobs."

Style 3 — Functional: "Your experience grouped by skill."

Flat delivers 1 style · Plus delivers 2 styles · Premium delivers all 3 styles.

Terms and Conditions

1. What this service is We rewrite your resume from your facts only — a summary, experience lines, and a skills list — and deliver it as a PDF to your email. There are three tiers: Flat, Plus, and Premium.

2. Prices Flat $60 · Plus $96 · Premium $132. The price you see before you pay is the whole price you pay. Nothing is added later.

3. Start of work Your clock starts when your intake form is complete. Your first draft arrives within 2 business days.

4. Your facts only We never invent jobs, dates, titles, degrees, licenses, or skills. If a fact is missing, the clock pauses until you send it. We ask for missing facts — we never invent them.

5. The job post (Plus and Premium) Plus and Premium are aimed at ONE job post — the announcement an employer publishes for an open job. You give it to us as a link, or as its text pasted into the form — no pictures. We use the post's requirements, and its own words, only where true of you.

6. Your papers (Premium) Premium works from the words of your resume, pasted into the form — copied from your text file (PDF or DOC, no pictures) — which we adapt to your job post. You may also paste the words of up to 3 diplomas and up to 3 licenses into the form. A diploma is the official paper a school gives you when you finish a degree; a license is an official paper that allows you to do a job. We enter them exactly as your papers show.

7. Styles Your resume comes in numbered styles: Style 1 — Reverse-Chronological ("Your jobs, newest first"); Style 2 — Combination ("Your skills first, then your jobs"); Style 3 — Functional ("Your experience grouped by skill"). Flat delivers 1 style, Plus delivers 2 styles, Premium delivers all 3 styles. You write the style number(s) you want on the intake form.

8. Length Length is separate from style. Flat is one page, fixed. Plus runs up to two pages, and Premium up to three pages. With Plus and Premium, you choose the length setting on the intake form: Ultra condensed — the shortest fit, your facts pressed into the fewest pages; Medium extended — the middle length, more room for each job; Full extended — the longest version your tier allows, full detail for every fact.

9. Rounds of changes One round of changes is included. One round means you send all your changes in one message; we answer with one new draft, within 1 business day. You have up to 3 days to review each draft.

10. No answer in the 3 days We send one reminder. If the 3 days pass with no answer, we finish your resume from the information on your intake form, deliver the PDF to the email on your form, and the service counts as finished.

11. Delivery Delivery is by email only. Your drafts and your final PDF go to the email you write on the intake form. Your final PDF arrives the same day you accept, with the agreement screenshot — the picture of the record of your finished order.

12. Privacy — we erase everything We do not keep a record of the content you send us. When your service is completed, we erase everything — your form answers and our drafts. Stripe keeps its own payment record; that record is Stripe's, not ours.

13. No physical address We never ask for your physical address — not on the form, not anywhere. Do not send it. This form asks only for your name, your email, and your phone or WhatsApp: a resume cannot be written without your real name and work history.

14. No promises beyond the product We write the words. We do not promise interviews, calls, or a job — no one honestly can. You apply for jobs yourself, in your own accounts.

What You Sign

Your acceptance. This service has no paper signature. When a draft is right, you click "I am satisfied with the final result." That click is your acceptance.
Your click, together with your Stripe payment receipt, is the record of your order. Your final PDF arrives with the agreement screenshot — the picture of that record. After your service is completed, we erase our copies of everything you sent us, as Term 12 says.

Plain Words

Job post: the announcement an employer publishes for an open job.

Diploma: the official paper a school gives you when you finish a degree — for example, a bachelor's, a master's, or a PhD.

License: an official paper that allows you to do a job.

Style: the way your resume is organized — what comes first, and how your experience is grouped.

Length setting: how long your resume runs — Ultra condensed (the shortest fit), Medium extended (the middle length), or Full extended (the longest your tier allows).

Round of changes: you send all your changes in one message; we answer with one new draft.

Intake form: the form that starts your service after you pay.
